State of Idaho

The Office of the Governor
Proclamation

State Capitol
Boise

Whereas; a wide array of public agencies, non-profit organizations, schools, universities, museums, libraries and summer camps across the country will celebrate annual Summer Learning Day on July 13, 2006; and

Whereas; this will be a day to reflect on the importance of high-quality summer learning opportunities in the lives of young people and their families; and

Whereas; Summer Learning Day is designed to highlight the need for more young people to be engaged in learning activities over the summer and to support local summer programs that benefit children, families and communities; and

Whereas, the State of Idaho is proud of the academic accomplishments of students in our State, and supports learning activities that contribute to continued academic improvement.

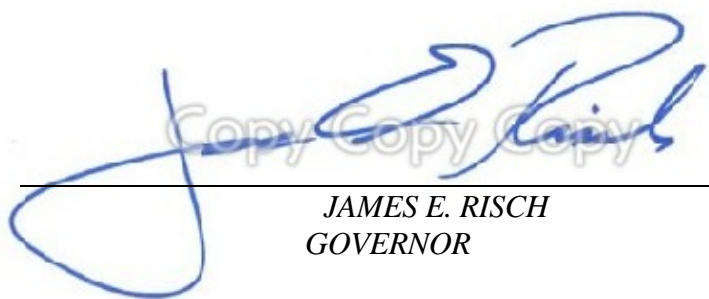

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JAMES E. RISCH, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim the week of July 13, 2006, to be:

SUMMER LEARNING DAY

in Idaho.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this 5th day of July in the year of our Lord two thousand and six, and of the independence of the United States of America the two hundred thirty-first and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred seventeenth.

JAMES E. RISCH
GOVERNOR
